HISTORICAL NOTE:

Student Government at Minnesota State University, Mankato has had several forms throughout its history. The Mankato State University student government has held five names since 1931. They were first known as the Student Council in the 1930s, then the Student Senate in the 1950s, the Minnesota State University Student Association (MSUSA), and the Minnesota State Student Association (MSSA). During the April 2018 MSSA formally changed their name to Student Government.

The state-wide student governing organization has been called the All School Social Committee (A.S.S.C.) and the Minnesota State College Council and the Minnesota State University Student Association (MSUSA). Currently, the Minnesota State University Student Association (Students United, <https://www.studentsunited.org/>) represents state university students and the Minnesota State College Student Association (LeadMN, <https://www.leadmn.org/>) represents community and technical college students.

The student governing body has had different leadership throughout the years and some early leadership includes Erwin Olson in 1931 followed by Ed Dillon in the spring of 1932. In the spring semester of 1957 President Jahnke conducted the senate meetings. He was followed by President Darryl Hill in the fall semester of 1957. President Dean Schuenke presided over the senate meetings in the spring Semester of 1960. On April 27, 1960 he handed leadership to President Dick Maas. He was then followed by David Peterson. In 1964 the student government had a major change in its history by having one of the first female presidents Kitty Hughes. In the spring of 1968 Mike Holmgren held the gavel of the student senate. The line of leadership continues through the spring semester of 1997 with President Tony Hanson leading the student senate. The 2007-2008 President was Chris Frederick. The current Student Government leadership can be found on the Student Government website: <https://www.mnsu.edu/mssa/>.

“Student Government represents Minnesota State University, Mankato students at the Institutional, Local, State and Federal governing levels through listening to and voicing the thoughts, ideas, and concerns of all students.” This is the mission statement of the current Student Government which can be found (along with a variety of information) on their website: <http://www.mnsu.edu/mssa/>.

The current committees include, the Academic Affairs Committee, Bookstore Advisory Committee, MSSA Budget Committee, Elections Commission, Ethics and Standards Commission, Diversity Committee, Leadership Training Team, Legislative Affairs Committee, Newspaper Board, Student Affairs Committee, Student Allocations Committee, Student Organization Activity Funding Committee (SOFAC), Student Union Board, and the Student Technology Roundtable (<http://www.mnsu.edu/mssa/committees/>). MSSA also participates in several campus wide committees which include, the Budget Sub Meet & Confer, Constitution Commission, Ethics & Standards, Parking Advisory, Parking Appeals Board, Status of Women and Student Services. Past committees include Communications Board, Constitution Commission, Fiscal Affairs Committee, Newspaper Committee, Public Affairs Committee and Steering Committee.

MSSA is organized in a hierarchical way with a president, vice president, senate speaker, senate treasurer and coordinators more information on the organization of MSSA is available on the website: <http://www.mnsu.edu/mssa/docs/orgchart.html>.

Presently MSSA awards several leadership scholarships, has a student attorney available for student use and has established a Student Savings Club in an attempt to help college students save money at local businesses. They continue the effort to listen to student needs and attempt to find solutions for students.
