

Safe Zone training scheduled for April 26

The LGBT Center will present Safe Zone Training for students on Wednesday, April 26, from 8-10 p.m. in CSU 285.

The LGBT Center will present Safe Zone Training for students on Wednesday, April 26, from 8-10 p.m. in CSU 285.

The event is open to those who want to learn more about the LGBT community, what it means to be a part of the campus, and acquire skills and knowledge to more effectively work with friends and fellow students. Safe Zone training is available to individuals who are LGBT-friendly and who want to expand their knowledge and visibility on such issues.

Participants can become a Safe Zone-certified ally, and can learn to speak more effectively about LGBT topics, better understand LGBT students, and make a statement to the campus regarding support LGBT individuals.

Those who wish to participate should RSVP to Amanda Temple at amanda.temple@mnsu.edu by Tuesday, April 25, at 4 p.m.

For MSU events: individuals with a disability, who need reasonable accommodation to participate in this event, are asked to contact the Office of Accessibility Resources at 507-389-2825 (V/TTD), 800-627-3529 or 711 (MRS/TTD) at least five days prior to the event.
