

Study Abroad Fair is Feb. 14

This year's Study Abroad Fair will be Tuesday, Feb. 14, providing information about short-term break tours and longer programs of study throughout the world.

This year's Study Abroad Fair will be Tuesday, Feb. 14, providing information about short-term break tours and longer programs of study throughout the world.

The fair will be in the CSU from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Students will be able to talk to Minnesota State Mankato program providers and faculty who provide short-term tours to various places during semester breaks, other MnSCU universities which offer programs for all Minnesota students, Wisconsin universities which offer programs through reciprocity, and many independent providers that offer programs for students to study all over the world.

Vendors who will be present at the fair:

- Tamara Wilkins (Minnesota State Mankato Law Enforcement): London/Amsterdam winter tour
- John Janc (Minnesota State Mankato French): Summer French language
- Joseph Kunkel and Suzanne Bunkers (Minnesota State Political Science/Humanities): Political Science and Humanities in Italy
- American Institute for Foreign Study, Damien Marshall: 13 countries in Europe, South America and Africa
- American International University: London and Dubai
- Australlearn, Dan O'Brien: Australia and New Zealand
- Institute For Study Abroad, Butler University: UK and South American countries, direct enrollment
- International Studies Association, Laura Pierce: 10 countries, concentration on languages
- Pacific Challenge: Winona Experiential/Tourism in Australia
- St. Cloud State: 18 programs all over the world for Minnesota students
- Seminars International, Mavis Erdman: Travel provider for short-term faculty programs
- UW Platteville, Suzanne Grebe: Wisconsin programs provide reciprocity for Minnesota students

For MSU events: individuals with a disability, who need reasonable accommodation to participate in this event, are asked to contact the Office of Accessibility Resources at 507-389-2825 (V/TTD), 800-627-3529 or 711 (MRS/TTD) at least five days prior to the event.