

Black American-Asian experience to be discussed Feb. 7

The Black American-Asian Experience will be discussed by Penh Lo, assistant director for Asian American affairs, on Tuesday, Feb. 7, as part of Black History Month.

The Black American-Asian Experience will be discussed by Penh Lo, assistant director for Asian American affairs, on Tuesday, Feb. 7, as part of Black History Month.

Lo's discussion will be from 1-3 p.m. in Room 201 of Centennial Student Union.

It is one of several Black History Month activities coordinated by the Office of Institutional Diversity, and co-sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs and the IMPACT Team, with support from the Women's Center, the Department of Ethnic Studies, KMSU-FM and the College of Arts & Humanities.

Other upcoming events include:

- "Back to Basics: Hand Quilting," patterns used as underground railroad code. Saturday, Feb. 11, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Room 269 of Centennial Student Union. (A $2 materials fee and pre-registration is required. Those who want more information should contact Maria Baxter-Nuamah at 389-6300.)
- "Black and Native American Identity: Living with Multiple Identities," facilitated by Jennifer Simon. Tuesday, Feb. 14, 1-3 p.m. in Room 201 of Centennial Student Union.
- Pan African Student Leadership Conference. Wednesday, Feb. 22, through Saturday, Feb. 25.

For MSU events: individuals with a disability, who need reasonable accommodation to participate in this event, are asked to contact the Office of Accessibility Resources at 507-389-2825 (V/TTD), 800-627-3529 or 711 (MRS/TTD) at least five days prior to the event.