

Family Weekend Oct. 13 and 14

Campus activities are plentiful on this weekend to show off the university.

The weekend of October 13 is Minnesota State University Mankato's Family Weekend -- a time for faculty, staff and students to show off their campus through a variety of activities from sports to theater to tours of the various colleges on campus.

Friday's events include a performance by Comedy Sportz, the Twin Cities-based comedy troupe, women's volleyball against the University of North Dakota, a Minnesota State Mankato theater performance of "Peter Pan" and a screening of the film "Over The Hedge."

Saturday's events include a 5K run/walk, alumni and legacy breakfasts, free , open houses at the various colleges on campus, kid games, barbecue, Maverick football, volleyball and hockey games, pumpkin painting with Stomper, the play "Peter Pan" and the film "Over The Hedge."

Sunday's highlight is a women's soccer game against Nebraska-Omaha as well as a matinee of "Peter Pan."

Family Weekend buttons should be the first item of business, and they can be obtained for free between 4:30 and 7:30 p.m. Friday or 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday at Barnes & Noble on campus. Buttons provide discounted or free admission to a variety of the events.
