Mankato, Minn. – Minnesota State University, Mankato’s College of Business is hosting an annual national webcast on U.S.-China relations Monday, Nov. 18 from 5-7 p.m. at the Center for Innovation & Entrepreneurship (located at the former Hubbard Building in Old Town Mankato).

The event is free and open to the public, but RSVPs are required due to limited space. RSVP here. Refreshments and hors d’oeuvres will be served. Doors open at 4:30 p.m.

This is the 13th annual national webcast discussion, “CHINA Town Hall: Local Connections, National Reflections,” and this year’s event will be moderated by George Stephanopoulos.

Following the live webcast from 5-6 p.m., there will be a local panel presentation from 6-7 p.m. that includes Denny Dotson, chair of Dotson Iron Castings and the U.S. Representative to the World Foundry Organization; and Dave Preisler, CEO of the Minnesota Pork Producers Association and the Minnesota Pork Board.

Members of the media are welcome and are asked to contact Jen Cucurullo, director of communication & events in the College of Business, by phone at 507-389-5424 or by email at jen.cucurullo@mnsu.edu, to indicate their plans to attend the event.

Minnesota State Mankato, a comprehensive university with 14,297 students, is part of the Minnesota State system, which includes 30 colleges and seven universities.
