

Aug. 28: Representatives from 13 Airlines to Attend Aviation Student Orientation

Event is at Mankato Regional Airport.

Minnesota State University, Mankato Media Relations Office News Release, 8-26-2019

KEYC TV coverage

Mankato, Minn. – Minnesota State University, Mankato's Department of Aviation will be holding its fall aviation student orientation Wednesday, Aug. 28 at 4:45 p.m. in the large North Star hangar at the Mankato Regional Airport.

The Department of Aviation is expecting between 250 and 300 aviation students to attend the event. Representatives from 13 airlines will also be on hand to recruit Minnesota State Mankato students.

NOTE: The media is welcome to attend the event.

For more information, contact Tom Peterson, faculty member in the Department of Aviation, by phone at 507-389-5094 or by email at thomas.peterson@mnsu.edu.

Minnesota State Mankato's Department of Aviation is part the University's College of Education.

Minnesota State Mankato, a comprehensive university with 14,227 students, is part of the Minnesota State system, which includes 30 colleges and seven universities.