Minnesota State University, Mankato Department of Music News release, 1-13-2020

MANKATO, Minn. – Minnesota State Mankato's Department of Music will present the Cold/Å½ivanoviÄ Duo performing a classical recital at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Feb. 3 in Halling Recital Hall of the Earley Center for Performing Arts, 320 Maywood Avenue.

The Cold/Å½ivanoviÄ Duo was formed in 2018 by Benjamin Cold (pictured above right), saxophone, and Filip Å½ivanoviÄ (pictured below right), classical guitar, both D.M.A. alumni from the University of Minnesota. Since its formation, the CZ duo has performed as guest artists at various universities throughout the United States. In November 2018, they performed as guest artists at the International Contemporary Music Festival in Havana, Cuba.

Cold and Å½ivanoviÄ are both strong supporters of new and contemporary music written by living composers. As such, they have worked with a variety of both young and established composers on commission projects, expanding the repertoire available for this unique chamber instrumentation.

Concert admission is $9 for general admission and $7 for K-12 students and children. University students are admitted free with a valid MayCARD. Advance purchase is strongly encouraged. Those who wish to purchase tickets online should go to <http://link.mnsu.edu/musictickets>.
