

Feb. 23: Concert Wind Ensemble Performance

Concert is in Halling Recital Hall.

Minnesota State University, Mankato Department of Music News release, 1-22-2020

MANKATO, Minn. – The Minnesota State University, Mankato concert wind ensemble will perform Sunday, Feb. 23 at 3 p.m. in the Elias J. Halling Recital Hall of the Earley Center for Performing Arts, 320 Maywood Ave. The concert band is under the direction of Amy Roisum Foley, director of bands at Minnesota State Mankato.

The concert wind ensemble is an auditioned ensemble comprised of 45-50 undergraduate and graduate students pursuing a diverse array of majors. The ensemble is designed for the professionally minded performer and music educator and requires a high level of discipline from its members. Throughout the school year, the ensemble members perform a broad scope of large and small ensemble music written for wind and percussion instruments. The ensemble's primary goal is to work together to make great music for the ensemble and the audience.

Concert admission is $9 for general admission and $7 for K-12 students and children. University students are admitted free with a valid MayCARD. Advance purchase is strongly encouraged. Those who wish to purchase tickets online should go to <http://link.mnsu.edu/musictickets>.
