

MSU Hockey Game Notes

MSU (17-12-2, 13-9-1 WCHA) vs. Colorado College (16-14-2, 12-9-2 WCHA), Feb. 19, 2000, Colorado Springs World Arena, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Line-Up Changes: MSU's line-up remains the same as last evening.

The Series: After losing the first five games in the series with Colorado College, the Mavericks have won the last two games to run their all-time record to 2-5-0 with the Tigers. The win last night marked the first time MSU had defeated CC in Colorado Springs.

MSU Vs. WCHA: The fourth-place Mavericks stand 20-34-5 in games against WCHA teams since reclassifying to Division I in 1995-96. Listed below is MSU's record against WCHA teams since 1992-93.

1999-2000	13-9-1
1998-99	4-10-2
1997-98	3-12-2
1996-97	0-2-0
1995-96	0-0-0
1994-95	0-0-0
1993-94	0-0-0
1992-93	0-4-2

About Don Brose: MSU head coach Don Brose (Concordia '62), who recently announced that he intends to retire following the conclusion of the 1999-2000 season, is completing his 30th season at the Minnesota State helm. Brose owns a 532-325-70 career record. The St. Louis Park, Minn., native ranks seventh all-time among active NCAA hockey coaches in career wins and has moved into a tie for tenth place with former Gustavus Adolphus coach Don Roberts on the all-time career wins list.

Fox Tracks: Senior center Aaron Fox, who leads MSU in points (5) and assists (14), ranks 11th on MSU's all-time scoring list with 149 points. The Hastings, Minn., native ranks seventh all-time at MSU in career assists with 93 and his 139 games played ranks seventh all-time. Fox, who was held pointless for the first time in five games last night, has accumulated eight points in the last six games.

Pateman Patter: Sophomore goaltender Eric Pateman (17-11-2, .904 save %, 2.81 GAA), who owns school career shut-out (6) and assists by a goaltender (5) records, has made 22 consecutive starts. Pateman's career goals against average (2.79) and save percentage (.910) also rank first on MSU all-time lists and his four shut-outs this season has also established a school mark.

Just Joshin': Sophomore forward Josh Kern (6-5--11), who has sat out 13 of MSU's last 14 games, made his return a productive one last night with his first goal since Dec. 10. Kern's 11 points this season ranks third amongst MSU newcomers this year.

B.J. Abel Notes: Freshman forward B.J. Abel (5-15--2) collected his 11th point in the last ten games when he tallied MSU's first goal in last night's win. Abel, who leads all MSU newcomers with 20 points and ranks fifth overall on MSU's schooling list, owns a three-game point-scoring streak.

Justin Martin Notes: Sophomore forward Justin Martin (1-3--4) tallied his first goal of the season when he scored the game-winning goal in last night's contest. The goal, the sixth of his career, was his first career game-winning goal.

First Year Stuff: MSU's 13 wins in league play are the most by a first-year team since Alaska-Anchorage (1993-94) and Northern Michigan (1984-85) both hit the 14-win mark in their league debut seasons. The Mavericks, who own a 13-9-1 league mark for a .587 winning percentage, are on the verge of becoming the first team to finished with an above .500 record in league play since Wisconsin went 12-10-0 (.545) in its first year of WCHA action in 1969-70.

Team Notes: The Mavericks have won their last four games and six of its last seven. MSU owns a 10-0-1 record when leading after two periods, is 14-3-1 when scoring first and 10-1-0 when leading after one period. The Mavericks stand 6-8-2 in the first night of a two-game series and are 11-4-0 in the next night's rematch.

On Tap: The Mavericks host North Dakota next Friday and Saturday in their next action. The games will mark the final regular season home games for MSU of the season.
